

Public Hall, Lodi, Cal. Mar 18, 1907

The Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi convened in regular session, President Lawrence presiding, and Trustees J. M. Blodgett and J. L. Villinger being present. Absent: Trustees F. O. Hale and C.A. Rich and Clerk J. M. McMahon.

In the absence of the Clerk, President Lawrence appointed Trustee J. M. Blodgett Clerk Pro. Tem.

The minute's book of the Clerk not being available; and there being no objection the reading of the minutes was passed with the order of the President that they be read and passed upon at the next regular or adjourned regular meeting of the Board.

Mr. J. Millikan addressed the Board on the matter of the petition on file for the narrowing of Daisy Avenue. The matter was passed without any definite action being taken.

Owing to the absence of the Clerk and Trustees, Rich and Hale, the advisability of an adjournment was suggested; whereupon, Trustee J. M. Blodgett moved that the meeting adjourn to the regular meeting hour Monday evening, Mar. 25, 1907, which motion was duly seconded by Trustee L. Villinger, and unanimously carried, and so ordered by the President.

J. M. Blodgett
Clerk Pro. Tem.
